THE WORKRITE UNIFORM DIFFERENCE

The principle of our mission is simple: to protect today's workers by delivering trusted, innovative and market-leading flame-resistant (FR) branded apparel solutions. Achieving that mission is far more complex. We stand alone in having spent the last 40-plus years working solely in FR to ensure our products hold up to the highest standards.

For us, an expert FR supplier is the sum of its parts — product line breadth, knowledgeable consultation, top-quality fabric materials, design innovation, precision manufacturing, flexible customization, prompt delivery, dedicated FR-only account executives and responsive customer service.

While there may be other garment manufacturers that provide some of these capabilities, only Workrite Uniform Company fulfills them all.

<sup>1</sup>Typical fabric weights and colors used by Workrite Uniform. Others available upon request. <sup>2</sup>Subjective ranking. <sup>3</sup>"Life Cost" refers to the expected expenditures for FR clothing over the life of a program. For example, if a garment has a high up-front cost but a long wear life, the actual program cost is low. <sup>4</sup>Actual garment life varies greatly and depends on conditions of use. Workrite Uniform makes no warranty regarding the wear life of flame-resistant fabrics. "Wear Life" estimates are based on following the manufacturer's recommended handling procedures.

Only you or your employer can determine the hazards at your worksite and the appropriate level of protection required.
